

APPENDIX - Definitions

- TRAFFIC-RELATED FATALITY - traffic-related fatalities include: motor vehicle occupants, pedestrians, motorcyclists, moped operators, ATV operators and bicyclists.
- ALCOHOL-RELATED FATALITY - is a death that occurs in a crash involving at least one driver, pedestrian, or pedal cyclist with a BAC of 0.01 or above (National Highway Traffic Safety Association, Traffic Safety Facts, August 2007).
- ALCOHOL IMPAIRED FATALITY - is a death with a BAC of 0.08 or above (National Highway Traffic Safety Association).
- BAC - alcohol content in the body, originally measured using alcohol in blood (BAC stood for Blood Alcohol Content, expressed in milligrams of alcohol per 100 milliliters of blood), now typically measured using alcohol in breath (NHTSA, 2012).
- DUI-RELATED FATALITY - is a death that occurs in a crash involving at least one driver or motorcycle operator who was legally intoxicated (BAC=0.08+ (National Highway Traffic Safety Association, Traffic Safety Facts, August 2007).
- ALCOHOL-RELATED TRAFFIC CRASHES - are defined by the U.S. National Highway Traffic Safety Administration to include any and all vehicular (including bicycle and motorcycle) accidents in which any alcohol has been consumed, or believed to have been consumed, by the driver, a passenger or a pedestrian associated with the accident (alcohol-related traffic crashes in the United States (September 24, 2007).

APPENDIX - Abbreviations

- ADLRO - Administrative Driver's License Revocation Office
- BAC - Blood Alcohol Content
- DUI - Driving under the Influence
- DWI - Driving While Impaired, Driving While Intoxicated, and/or Driving Under the Influence
- SHSP - Strategic Highway Safety Plan
- IID - Ignition Interlock Device
- NCHRP - National Cooperative Highway Research Program
- OVUII - Operating a Vehicle Under the Influence of an Intoxicant
- DWS / DWR - Driving while License Suspended or Revoked